AIMEE SPARS WITH SOLONS AT JUDGE HARDY QUIZ

CHECK 'LOVE OFFERING,' REPORT

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28. UP—Aimee Simple McPherson, the evangelist, advised her mother to give Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy $2,500 in appreciation of his services to Angelus Temple, the testified late today before a special state assembly committee investigating the check.

She declared that at no time had she discussed with the priest her now famous "kidnaping" or asked him for advice in that connection.

The "offering" she testified, was volunteered in return for his work in conducting young people's services, organizing public ceremonies, speaking over the radio to her 250,000 followers and assisting in the administration of the interior affairs of the temple.

Love Offering

"Judge Hardy had told me he was going on a vacation and we told him we were sorry we could not give him the $2,500 we had promised him would be paid from a good will offering," Aimee testified. "I thought I would like to give him a love offering of $2,500."

The committee is tracing the check with a view to impeaching Judge Hardy in the state assembly for accepting the fee while he was sitting in superior court.

On the stand today the evangelist seemed reluctant to discuss the part played in the temple's affairs by her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, with whom she has been living since 1925.

At least, this is what the disaster relief and mobilization committee of the Richmond Boy Scouts will discuss at a session Thursday noon at 12:15 in the hotel Carquinez. Lloyd Bolt is chairman of the committee.

Under the plans, prepared for some hour he been midnight Feb. 2 and midnight Feb. 3, five short and one long blast of the Santa Fe shop whistle will tell the city that a disaster has befallen it. The blast from which the whistle will be sounded is known only to City Manager James A. McVittie.

When the signal comes the Fire Department will be alerted. Robert P. Police and other city departments will be alerted.

and the Red Cross will assemble at their mobilization points recently selected and ready orders will be opened by commanders directing the work. The police and fire departments will be ordered to the scene of the "disaster" and relief work will start.

Throughout the demonstration cameramen from leading movie news companies will stand away at their machines to show the world what Richmond can do in disaster.

Rev. A. A. Webb of the First Christian church heads the Red Cross disaster relief committee while City Manager James McVittie heads the city workers.

The program was sponsored by the Richmond Boy Scout Council.

When the signal comes the Fire Department will be alerted. Robert P. Police and other city departments will be alerted.

Arizona Asks Utah To Aid Water Fight

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Jan. 28. (UP)—Arizona appealed to Utah today not to ratify the water allocation agreement that would make the Swine-Johnson Boulder dam bill a law until Arizona has concluded a treaty with Utah in the lower basin of the Colorado river that would protect her interests.

Arizona's appeal was given to the state legislature by David B. Heard of Phoenix and M. F. Murphy of Salt Lake City, both of whom were in a joint session of the house and senate. They were induced by Ralph L. Crankwell of Los Angeles, representing California.

Crankwell said California was ready and willing to meet representatives of Arizona and Nevada across a conference table to draw up a treaty today.

No action was taken by the legislature. Leaders explained they were in a quandary on what to do, with Arizona asking delay and Wyoming the contrary. It was understood that the treaty that would protect her interests.

Arizona's ratification to make the legislation effective.

Actually, leaders said, Utah favors ratification, but is willing to withhold it long enough for Arizona, Nevada and California to negotiate a treaty if negotiations for such a treaty are undertaken immediately and presented to prompt conclusion.

Crockett Boy Hurt In Auto Accident

CROCKETT, Jan. 28.—A possible fractured skull was sustained by Albert Muth, 19, of Crockett when an automobile in which he was riding with two companions plunged off a road on the outskirts of Crockett and rolled over a steep hillside.

Albert Crockett, 21, was severely cut on the head and Joe Angell, 19, sustaining a fractured back and concussion.

The trio narrowly escaped death in the plunge. The machine landed virtually in an upright position but Muth was jammed against the car. Crockett and Angell were thrown clear of the machine and with the aid of passing motorists, attended in reaching Muth and taking him to the county hospital for treatment.

A detective steering apparatus was given as the cause of the accident.

Harbor Groups Of Council, Chamber Meet Tomorrow

Ways and means of financing the dredging of a turning basin in the Richmond inner harbor will be discussed by the members of the harbor committees of the Richmond city council and the chamber of commerce tomorrow. A joint meeting of the two committees will be held at 12:15 Wednesday noon.

Dredging of the turning basin must be done to make the harbor a desirable site for industries, it was stated. The dredging was planned to be done under the harbor and rivers bill presented to congress but the bill failed to pass.

RAZOR CUTS CHARGED TO MATE

Andrew J. Higgins, 340 Nineteenth street is in the city jail awaiting a preliminary hearing on a charge of "assault with intent to commit murder" while his wife Nellie Higgins is treating razor cuts on her hand alleged to have been made by her husband.

The attack on his wife from whom he was estranged, according to police reports was precipitated when Mrs. Higgins called at the home yesterday afternoon to complete a property settlement which is reported to have been made by the couple.

During an argument which followed, according to Mrs. Higgins' complaint to the police her husband slashed at her several times with a razor, injuring her slightly. She called police and swore to the warrant, charging Higgins with attempt of murder.

According to Mrs. Higgins and her husband had been separated for some time and had made a property settlement out of court. Under this settlement Mrs. Higgins stated, that she was to receive the family home on Nineteenth street.

When she reached there yesterday, Higgins became abusive and the attack followed. The old officers, Patrolman T. D. Floyd and Traffic Officer Eddie Baker made the arrest.

Lighting Plan Again Postponed

The question of installing electric lights on Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth avenues was not acted by the city council at its meeting last night.

Committee Elmer A. Martin of the street committee stated that no meeting to consider the proposed improvement had yet been held, and on his motion it was agreed the council as a committee of the whole would meet this week and determine the matter.

Reports Given To City Council

Reports of the different departments of the city were read at the meeting of the council last night and ordered filed.

GET LICENSES, DRIVERS WARNED

Closing date warnings are being issued to motorists on securing 1929 license plates for their cars. The renewal registration period ends at midnight, Jan. 31. After the closing hour double the usual fee must be paid under the law by those who have not secured or applied for plates.

The California State Automobile association reports indications of an unprecedented last minute rush on license issuing offices. The association is issuing plates to its members for passenger cars from its San Francisco main office and district headquarters in twenty-nine other cities. All offices of the State Division of Motor

The motorists' organization estimates 200,000 cars are being driven around with 1928 plates which will be out of date Jan. 31. Many commercial vehicle owners have been holding back until the last week. The association points out that not only does the penalty for delinquency make the passenger car owners pay $6 instead of $3 for plates but the commercial vehicle owner who does not secure plates within the prescribed time is subject to a doubling of the regular weight fee. Last year the state collected many thousands of dollars in penalties from those who did not secure plates before Jan. 31.

BERKELEY MAN HURT IN CRASH

Ted Gwerder, 55, 2442 Fourth street, West Berkeley, is in the Cottage hospital suffering from the effects of an injury on the head and cuts and bruises on the body as the result of an accident last night.

According to police reports Gwerder's car was stuck by car 276 of the Key System, Oakland bound, at the intersection of San Pablo and Brighton avenues Albany early last night.

Gwerder was taken to the Alhambra Emergency hospital by A. R. Westerber, 568 Thirteenth street, Richmond. He was treated by Dr. L. A. Hedges and was later removed to the Cottage hospital.

Many Believed Dead In Blaze

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28.—UP—Several Chinese are believed to have been killed in a fire which gutted the basement of a rooming house here today, one of Sacramento's landmarks in Chinatown. Firemen searching the ruins for bodies found a veritable catacomb in the basement. More than 20 Chinese were sleeping in the place when the fire first broke out. It was the worst blaze that Sacramento's Chinatown has ever known and the fire department fought for more than an hour and a half to conquer the blaze.

Machine Stolen For 'Short' Ride

A few minutes after C. E. Steward of Richmond reported that his car was stolen, he found the machine, according to a police report. Steward had his car parked at the intersection of Washington and Standard avenues, while he visited friends. When he returned to the parking place, the machine was gone. After he made a report of the theft to the police department, he returned to see the parking place and found the machine there. It is believed that "joy riders" borrowed the car.

DEFICIT FACED, WARNS BUDGET DIRECTOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—UP—President Coolidge appeared last night before the last regular business meeting of his administration, laid the results of eight years of budgeting before department and bureau chiefs and expressed satisfaction with the progress of his economy program.

But at the same time, Brig. Gen. H. M. Lord, budget director, issued a warning that the government might close the year with a deficit unless the "legislature pruning knife" is used freely. The deficit threat is serious, he said, and may leave the government on the wrong side of the ledger for the first time in eight years.

There was an air of sadness about the meeting as government officials gathered to hear the president deliver his last business organization address. Memorial Continental hall was filled to capacity with cabinet officers, bureau chiefs and their wives and minor officials. Some were young with the energy of youth. Others were gray-haired and bent from long years of government service. All listened attentively to the final economy plea of the president.

In spite of the accomplishments of the budget system, much remains to be done, President Coolidge told his subordinates.

Don't Tamper With Gas Gauge

Motorists should not attempt to correct certain inaccuracies of the gasoline gauge on the instrument board of their car, according to Louis C. Shaw, General Service Manager of the National Automobile club. Some of these gauging devices are deliberately designed to record an empty tank when in reality one or two gallons remain in the tank. This reserve protects the car owner against the possibility of running out of gas.

WHITE WIFE OF MAHARAJAH HAS CHILD

SAINTE GERMAINE-EN-LAYE, France, Jan. 28 (UP)—A "fair and pretty" daughter born Saturday to the wife of the former maharajah of Indore who was Nancy Ann Miller of Seattle, will be christened according to Hindu customs. It was announced tonight at the home of the fallen maharajah.

The baby, a princess of Indore, has not yet been named, and the birth was kept secret until today.

The maharajah's wife, whose Hindu name is Devi Shyamista, accepted her husband's religion when they were married last March. She was said to be "very happy" with the little princess. The maharajah was described as "overjoyed" and not disappointed because the child was not a boy, who might some day claim the throne of Indore.

Hindu Christening—The child will be christened when 12 days old, in accordance with Hindu custom, and will be raised in Indian style with Hindu culture and some European education, the maharajah's secretary announced. There is no question of American education or culture because Nancy Ann Miller renounced such with her marriage.

The maharajah, now known as Sir Tukoji Rao Holkar, was forced to abdicate his throne in 1925 after he was accused of complicity in the murder of a rich Indian merchant who was the lover of a Nautch dancing girl, Mumtaz Begum. Mumtaz had escaped the maharajah's palace and sought the protection of the merchant. Four men set upon the couple on a lonely road, killed the man and slashed the girl's face. Four unarmed British army officers drove them off before they could abduct Mumtaz.

Aroused Interest

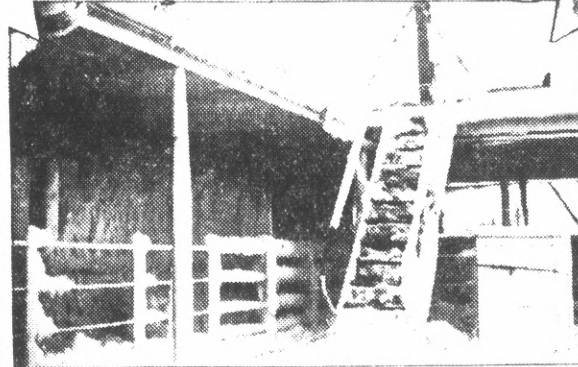

The decision of Mrs. Miller to marry the former maharajah was the center of great interest. She adopted the Hindu religion in elaborate Vedic rites in Indore.

The couple went to Switzerland for a honeymoon and then established a residence at their chateau here. The former maharajah is said to be extremely wealthy. He was one of the most powerful of Indian princes.

Although he had asked that the usual six-months ceremonial of propitiating the family deities and asking for their blessing be started some time ago, much secrecy surrounded the birth of the child. The potentate has other children, his eldest son being a student in England.

The chateau here contains about 50 rooms and is surrounded by a large park. It stands on a hill off the main Paris-Deauville road.

SAFETY FIRST HONORS PAID KEY WORKER

Leading all his fellow workers Milton Rouiller of the electrical engineering staff of the Key System, Tian company, has been bestowed honor man for the year of the Key System safety first organization.

The transit company's safety first association functions through a number of committees which pass on the merits of safety first suggestions submitted by fellow employees. If a suggestion receives approval, it is passed to an executive committee for final action. E. M. Borges is general chairman and Ann S. Davis, secretary of the organization.

During 1928, the annual report shows that 129 safety first ideas were considered by the executive committee. Rouiller successfully recommended during the year 17 safety first ideas. E. G. T. Traft, chairman, received second honors having 11 successful recommendations. This place was won by C. L. Perkins of the electrical department, with a record of 10 suggestions adopted.

Rouiller has been honor man of the Key System safety first organization three times before. He was high man during 1924, 1925 and 1926. He held second honors in 1927.

Rest your eyes during the long winter evenings

A survey has revealed that most homes have beautiful lamps but they give poor light. We also know that 25% of our school children have defective eyesight—caused, chiefly, by poor lighting.

What are you doing to correct these conditions in your home?

The best lighting is that which is nearest to ordinary daylight—sufficient light without glare, evenly distributed throughout the room.

The shade rests on closed top of glass globe which surrounds lamp and diffuses raw light.

The lamp illustrated here meets these requirements. It's good for the eyes. It improves the colors of furniture and draperies. Friends love to linger in the soft complimentary light. The lamps (both floor and table) come with a selection of silk and parchment shades. So whether you like the warm golden glow of the silk shade or the soft silvery light of the parchment—in either, the lighting is most restful. We'll gladly send you a lamp to try. Phone or call at our office.

PIGGLY WIGGLY WINS SECOND HALF FLAG

By defeating the San Pablo ball club Sunday, the Piggly Wiggly baseball team clinched the championship of the second half of the Oakland winter league. The score was 5 to 3 and the outcome of the game was put over.

As a result of their victory, the Piggly Wiggly nine will start at three game championship with the Guarantee Shoes, winners of the first half of the league on Sunday.

Bob Hurst, who will report to the Oaks next month was on the mound for the Grocers and San Pablo got a tally off him in the first inning. Greathouse started with a single, a left and went to second when Herb Kelly made his first lead of the season. Bernardo singled and Whetzel singled sharply to score Greathouse.

The San Pablo club maintained its lead until the fourth when the Grocers hammered over four runs off Roland Roberts.

George McKim, former Oak, opened the scoring with a single and Marty Tierney snapped a single while the San Pablo played to a sacrifice. This seemed to put the infield dead, as a result, when Martin batted to Roberts there was no one to cover the bases. With the bags full, Ritchie hit a long triple to center, only to bring in three runs. Hurst reached first on McCo's bat. Hurst flew to Whetzel and when Gardner did the same, Ritchie scored after two catches.

The Grocers added their fifth run in the seventh. Ernie Hutton singled and scored when Gardner hit a triple.

The San Pablo team came back with a rally in the eighth. With two men gone Greathouse singled and Bernardo scored him with a double. Whetzel then snapped a double to score Bernardo. The rally ended when McCo fouled out.

GIBSON LOOMS AS CABINET OFFICER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(UP)—Speculation of political Washington centered tonight around Hugh S. Gibson, ambassador to Belgium, who is one of President Hoover's most intimate friends and who has been ordered home at a moment when there is being discussed an international conference to modify maritime law.

Gibson is expected to arrive Feb. 23. In making the announcement, Secretary of State Frank B. Rowland said President Coolidge had requested the ambassador be summoned so that he might discuss with the administration matters relating to the League of Nations preliminary disarmament conference which is scheduled to convene in Geneva April 15 at Geneva.

There were indications, however, that Gibson might either be sought to give his opinion relative to modification of maritime law or that Hoover might desire to keep him in Washington during the next four years.

Both the state and navy departments figured in this latter speculation. Gibson, like the president-elect, is a Californian and they became fast friends during the war when the former, as secretary of the Embassy in Paris, was in direct touch with Hoover's Belgian relief work.

Bear Freshman Nine May Play On City Streets
BERKELEY, Jan. 28.—University of California baseball teams may have to learn to dodge trolley cars and flivvers while playing ball in the Berkeley streets, as result of a building program which has taken from the students West Field, formerly used as the varsity diamond.

Coch Carl Zambloch will have to instruct his varsity ball-players on what is left of Hilkard field, formerly dedicated to the freshmen, while Brick Mitchell and his yearlings have the option of practicing on a twenty-degree slope or encroaching upon the public thoroughfares.

Work is being rushed upon clearing the property adjoining the campus which was recently bought for the purpose of uniting athletic facilities, and it may be possible to have a diamond in rough shape there before the end of February. A baseball field with bleachers and clubhouse of permanent construction will eventually be built when the various parcels of real estate are consolidated.

CHRISTIE FACES HARD JOB IN TRACK TEAM

BERKELEY, Jan. 28.—With but nine point winners from the 1928 Stanford California Big Meet returning this season, Walt Christie, veteran track coach at the University of California, has started his twenty-ninth annual campaign to win honors for the Golden Bear on the field and cinder-path.

Christie, the "old master," faces a difficult task in that he must develop a squad entirely from new material or from material with but little previous experience. His nine veterans of the last big meet between them won only 18 1/2 points, and it takes sixty-six to win the meet, so a little simple arithmetic will prove how much remains to be done.

Courtney Returns
The nucleus of the 1929 squad will be Captain Emory Courtney, javelin thrower, who took second against Stanford and first against Southern California a year ago with tosses of 187 feet 5 inches and 182 feet 4 inches respectively.

Harry Carter, miler who captured a first against the Cardinals with 4:22 1/2 and a miler who took second in the mile, Tony Jackewitch, who earned second in the high jump with a 5 feet 11 1/2 inch leap; Russ Ewing, third place man in the hundred; Dave Chase, third place man in the half-mile; Benny Lom, football star and broad jumper, who picked up a point for third place when he covered 23 feet 1 inch; and Phil Hempler and Everett Serivner, who tied for third in the pole vault at 12 feet.

Other veterans of the 1929 squad who may bolster the point column in meets this season are Bliss, broad jumper; Brown, weightlifter; and Catrow, hurdler, all of whom placed in the Southern California meet. Rust and Pratt were also members of the relay team which beat the Trojans at that time.

New Material
But if Christie is to put California back into its old place in the sun in track and field competition it seems certain that he will have to depend upon new material to do it. No less than eight junior college athletes who entered California last fall or this Christmas will be eligible for sports, and upon these men will fall the burden of making up the points lost by graduation.

Among the junior college men who will be out this spring are Garland Smith of Riverside and Spencer Bissch of Modesto, both of whom can step the century in ten flat or better and the far-long in 22.3 seconds; Loren Sparks, a 502 man in the quarter from Modesto; Jack Johnson, a 513 man from the same institution; Ray Brennan, half miler from Modesto with a record of 2:02 in the half mile; and Al Pozzobelli, star hurdler from Modesto, who has stepped the high in 15 flat and the low in 24 3/4.

New Discus Thrower
Riverside Junior College has also sent to California Bob Patton, a likely looking individual who tosses the discus out around the 142-foot mark and broad jumps around 23 feet. Stuart Eckert, who has been at the Davis Farm school, is now at Berkeley and is expected to improve upon his record of six feet in the high jump. He also runs the high hurdles in 16 flat. Another junior college prospect in the hurdler is Garland Smith, who does the 220 lows around 24 3/4.

The return of Gene Stirling, an old varsity man of the '26 and '27 squads, will considerably help in the pole vault. Stirling has done 12 feet 9 inches.

Famous Shell To Be Used By Bears

BERKELEY, Jan. 28.—The "Golden Gate" shell in which the California varsity crew rowed last year a ten consecutive victories and a world's title will see another season of active service.

In spite of proposals to replace the shell as a trophy, the boat has been put in commission again and will be used by the freshmen in their annual race with Washington. The varsity is now using it as a practice shell.

Garden Highway Has River View
With the completion of an eight-mile stretch of pavement just contracted for by the Sutter County Board of Supervisors, the Garden highway between Yuba City and Sacramento will become a river view road throughout, according to the National Automobile club.

The new pavement begins two miles south of Yuba city, follows the river closely, passing the Hook ranch, where General Sutter had his headquarters and maintained a fort in the days of '49, and connects with the present road about one and one-half miles to the east of Yuba; thence to the Nicholas bridge and causeway, which at the present time is under repair and not open to traffic.

With this new stretch of road a river view drive, mostly on top of the levee which flanks the Sacramento, will be provided for motorists extending from Antioch to Yuba City, approximately 100 miles.

St. Ignatius Five To Tangle With Bear Quintet
BERKELEY, Jan. 28.—Reported equal to the best in this state the St. Ignatius college basketball team of San Francisco will meet the University of California to night in the Oakland auditorium.

Last year, for the first time since basketball relations between the two institutions were established St. Ignatius beat California. The score was 30 to 19, enough to be decisive. In the nine other games played since the original encounter back in 1913, California has been uniformly victorious.

The Gray Fox starting lineup with Captain Maloney and Kleckner at forward; Hale, center, and Barthelme and Cameron as guards. The Bears have reason to remember Barclay, for he was the counting machine that rang up the big total for the San Francisco last year.

Nibs Price will probably start a quintet composed of Steven and Ten Eyck forwards; Corbin, center, and Cookley and Gregory guards. When they get in at forward, while Coffield and Clymer stand a chance at guard. The game was originally scheduled to be played in Harmon gymnasium on the California campus, but in order to avoid a repetition of the situation last year, when hundreds were turned away at the doors it was decided to move to a larger court.

LOCAL CAGERS DEFEAT OIL QUINTET

By playing a first offense and an almost perfect defense, the local Cagers of Richmond, defeated the Union Oil basketball team of Orem last night at the Roseville gymnasium by a score of 36 to 24.

As usual, Rowdy Dyer played the hero by annexing 20 points during the course of the evening. Dyer made his points on buckets. His playmate, Bunny Ark, was second high man with eight points.

For the Union Oilers, Valera was high man with eight points and LeBeau and Beck trailed him with five points.

The lineups were as follows: Cagers, (36) Dyer 20, Huzefka Teechini, 3, forwards; Strick 4, center; Barthelme 2, Anna 2, guards.

OIL (24) Atkinson 4, Wilkins 2, Beck 5 forwards; Valera 8, centers; LeBeau 5, Dixon, Nueman 3, guards.

Ned Kay, Hayward high school coach, was the seventh man on the court.

The Richmond Union high school basketball squad will mix with the University high school team of Oakland at 8 o'clock this afternoon in the high school gymnasium.

Prior to the big game, the B squad from the local school will meet the University reserves.

Friday night the high school squad will battle the St. Mary's Frosh quintet starting at 7 o'clock.

On Friday afternoon the C team will meet the Alameda 110 squad at the local high school gymnasium.

C. C. GOLF CLUB PLANS LADIES' DAY TOURNEY

MARTINEZ, Jan. 28.—After the recent rains, the Pacheco course of the Contra Costa Golf club is in ideal condition and the women are availing themselves of this opportunity for intense practice in preparation for spring tournament play.

At the 'Ladies' Day Tournament' held recently, Mrs. Frank Russell of Concord carried off first honors with a low net score. The runner-up, Mrs. W. R. McGregor was one stroke behind Mrs. Russell.

Mrs. Henry Hauser has donated a prize to be presented to the winner of the February Ladies' day tournament. With the unprecedented golfing enthusiasm now being displayed by the women, preparations are being made for an even larger number of entrants in this tournament.

On Feb. 5, the first of the series of afternoon card parties being sponsored by the women's team is to be presented at the clubhouse.

Scandinavians, Fruitvale In Soccer Tie Here
Playing before a fair sized crowd at Nicholl field Sunday afternoon the Scandinavians and Fruitvale soccer squads played to two to two tie. The game was in the east bay junior soccer league.

H. Sundry scored for the Scandinavians on the kickoff. The game was hotly contested thereafter with Lewis of Fruitvale tying the count shortly before half time.

At the start of the second half, R. Sundry scored for Fruitvale and later Lager made a penalty kick for the Scandinavian team, tying the score.

Rosalie Adele Nelson,
The Original Lucky Poster Girl

"I'm a 'Lucky Girl' because I've found a new way to keep my figure trim. Whenever the desire for a sweet tempts me, I light up a Lucky Strike. It's remarkable how nicely the toasted flavor of Luckies satisfies me. Toasting has taken out all impurities—all that is left is the thrilling Lucky aroma. I certainly am lucky to be 'The Lucky Girl.'"

ROSALIE ADELE NELSON

THE modern common sense way—reach for a Lucky instead of a fattening sweet. Thousands are doing it—men keep healthy and fit, women retain a trim figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest tobaccos, skillfully blended, then toasted to develop a flavor which is a delightful alternative for that craving for fattening sweets.

Toasting frees Lucky Strike from impurities. 20,679 physicians recognize this when they say Luckies are less irritating than other cigarettes. That's why folks say: "It's good to smoke Luckies."

A reasonable proportion of sugar in the diet is recommended, but the authorities are overwhelming that too many fattening sweets are harmful. So, for moderation's sake we say:—

LAWYER KILLS WIFE, SHOTS SELF

BOULDER, Colo., Jan. 28.—(UP)—Yielding to his wife's pleas that he kill her, J. E. Kirkbride, 45, former district attorney, late today fired a bullet through her left ear and then shot himself through the right temple.

Their bodies were found side by side in a bedroom of their home by two sisters of Kirkbride and his former secretary. Also found were six letters in which Kirkbride detailed his wife's fears that she was going insane, and her appeals to him that he kill her.

Mrs. O. M. Gilbert, wife of a prominent Boulder physician, and Mrs. Mary Boyd, both sisters of Kirkbride, confirmed the gruesome contents of the letters, saying that they knew Kirkbride and his wife often discussed murder and suicide. He even had discussed the subject with them, they recalled. They little dreamed he actually would commit the deed even though he considered it a merciful killing, they said.

The letters were addressed to the sheriff, the coroner, and legal associates of the dead man. In them he assumed guilt for murdering his wife by request.

Inside the front door of the Kirkbride home was a note saying "do not go upstairs, call Ormonde Howe." It was found by the sisters and Charles Salyer, Kirkbride's secretary while he was district attorney. Recently Kirkbride failed to be reappointed. His wife had submitted to several examinations at the Denver Psychopathic hospital. Until very recently she worked in the office of the county clerk.

Building Code To Be Discussed By El Cerrito

Adoption of the uniform building code was laid over by the council of El Cerrito at its meeting Monday and an ordinance adopting a modified building code will probably be acted on next Monday.

The council will meet Wednesday night to go over the uniform building code and make whatever changes in the code they deem necessary to meet needs of a city the size of El Cerrito.

The question of whether a full time building inspector, who also would be plumbing and electrical inspector, should be hired and placed on salary, instead of having three separate inspectors working on the fee basis, will also be discussed at the committee meeting Wednesday night.

Changing of the names of the streets in El Cerrito to avoid duplication of names in the city will probably come up next Monday night when the changes will be made.

Iowa Day Plans For State Fair

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28.—(UP)—Request of the Iowa Society of Sacramento the State Agricultural Society will designate one of the ten days of the seventy-fifth State fair, next September, as "Iowa Day." Former residents of Iowa living in California and other Pacific slope states, will be urged to visit the state fair and Western States Exposition on the designated day.

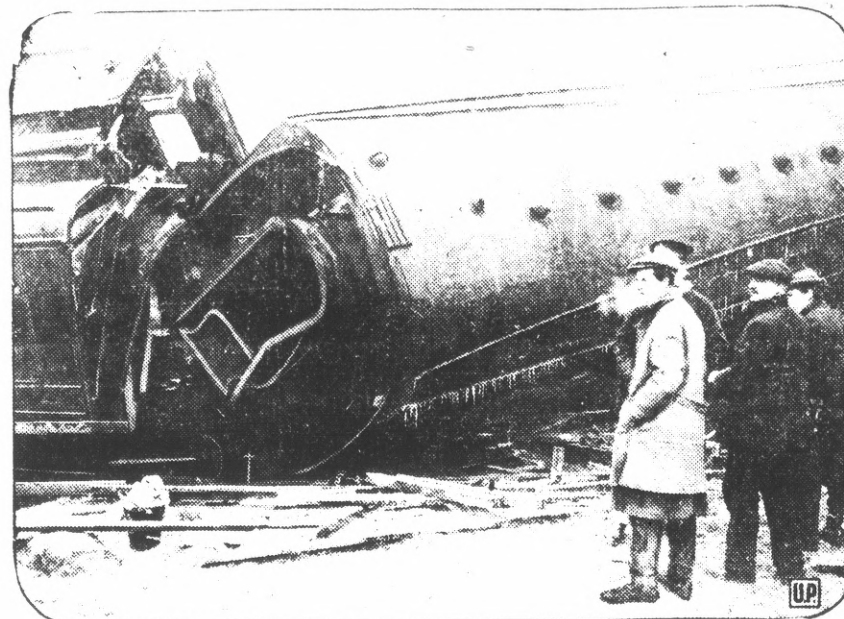

In making the request, the Iowa society pointed out that such a day would be made a tribute to Herbert Hoover, the president-elect, being a resident of California and a native of Iowa.

Kiwanis To Hear Address on Bridge

Construction of a bridge from Richmond to San Rafael will be discussed before the session of the Richmond Kiwanis club tomorrow noon by Charles Dereloth's talk will deal with the economic and technical phases of the work.

W. L. "Doc" Seawright, city recreation director, will be the chairman of the day.

broken. She referred to her as "Mrs. Kennedy" and declared that "Mrs. Kennedy handled the kidnapping" during the time Judge Hardy was given the check.

The chief characters of the evangelists melodramatic "kidnapping" were drawn out of the past by one in the legislators' questions and the mention of each was a signal for vehement protest by her counsel.

Attorneys coming to their feet and warned her not to answer when she was asked regarding Kenneth G. Ormiston, former radio man at the temple, and Mrs. Lorraine Wiseman-Sieff, the famous "Miss X" of the "kidnaping."

It was Mrs. Wiseman-Sieff, who three years ago attempted to prove that she and not Mrs. McPherson occupied a love nest at Carmel-by-the-Sea with Ormiston during the time of the disappearance.

Heated Arguments
The legislators attempted to question the evangelist concerning her friendship with Ormiston and later as to whether or not she has ever asked Judge Hardy's advice concerning certain checks it was intimated the radio man had issued without sufficient funds.

The questions caused a heated argument after which Mrs. McPherson's attorneys instructed her not to answer regarding the checks.

"I refuse to answer on advice of counsel," she replied. "As for Mr. Ormiston, I knew him about four years."

First mention of Ormiston caused a furor in the courtroom. The investigators announced baldly that "Ormiston was involved in the kidnapping case and we want to find out if Judge Hardy knew anything about that association."

Cromwell Ormsby, one of Mrs. McPherson's attorneys, declared that it was not necessary to bring Ormiston's name into the case.

Thorough Probe
"We are not interested in Mrs. McPherson's private life, but we must get to the bottom of the affair as far as the check is concerned," he was informed.

"We are less so interested, but of course the newspapers are," Ormsby shouted as a parting shot. The name of Mrs. Wiseman-Sieff was introduced after extensive questioning concerning the investigating which followed Mrs. McPherson's disappearance by the sea and return from the desert.

The revivalist testified that she never had anticipated any trouble as a result of her "kidnaping."

Attorneys Retained
"And yet you retained three attorneys after your return?" she was asked.

"Yes, I had been called by the grand jury, but I went before them thinking they were my friends."

"Prior to this time Mrs. Wiseman-Sieff had sent her now famous note, had she not?" Chairman Little asked.

Mrs. McPherson's attorneys were on their feet immediately, refusing to allow her to answer.

Threats Made
Assemblyman Hornblower, of San Francisco, interrupted to remark that "if counsel for Mrs. McPherson continues to refuse to allow her to answer we may have to delay the start of her trip to British Columbia tonight."

Attorney Ormsby answered

FLINT, Mich., Jan. 28.—(UP)—After an investigation which disclosed poison in the body of Thomas F. Loree, warrants charging murder were issued today for his housekeeper, Mrs. Emma Fogle, 57, and her husband, Edward.

Four hours after Loree died, police said, Mrs. Fogle recorded deeds to $30,000 worth of property which she said, Loree had bequeathed to her when he became ill last February. The housekeeper, investigators said, had the body taken to a mortuary and made arrangements for the funeral without consulting relatives, including a stepdaughter, all of whom resided in Flint.

Mary Loree, the stepdaughter, demanded the autopsy which resulted in the finding of the poison in Loree's body.

Loree died Dec. 4, 1928. Mrs. Fogle had been his housekeeper since the death of his wife five years ago.

State police ordered the exhumation of the body of Charles Dumaw, from whom Mrs. Fogle inherited his share in a house and $1000 insurance, authorities said. Dumaw died May 11, 1923. Police said she also inherited three vacant lots and a blacksmith shop from her half-brother James Cummings, who died in 1917.

Inspector Burk said an investigation would be made of six deaths which since 1917, brought financial gain to Mrs. Fogle. Her small fortune, according to police, began to accumulate in 1917 when her half-brother died.

quickly that he could have "sent her away before this hearing ever started," and Hornblower retorted dryly that it was "too late now."

"Well, such a statement is like hitting a man when he is down," Ormsby responded.

Mrs. McPherson replied indignantly at one time that Judge Kennedy had never said that Judge Hardy was not worth $2500 and that he had presented a bill for services.

Attorney Advised
She said that Judge Hardy had once advised the temple to retain an attorney to handle some difficulty which arose in the Santa Ana church. The jurist, she said, had told her that because he was on the bench he could not handle some matters.

He respected his position and when a woman asked her to intervene in behalf of her son, who was to be tried before Judge Hardy, he declared that he was "a friend but cannot even discuss such matters," Mrs. McPherson said.

The legislators asked repeatedly if Judge Hardy had not given advice on various angles of the "kidnaping" but each time Mrs. McPherson made a clam, flat denial.

Check Produced
The $2500 check made a personal appearance today when it was produced by Chairman Little the evangelist testified that she had never seen it before.

Mrs. McPherson was accompanied by Rev. J. W. Arthur, auditor of the temple, who testified Saturday Mrs. Mae Waldron, the evangelist's private secretary, had left for San Francisco and Mrs. McPherson said she did not know where she could be reached.

Judge Hardy probably will take the stand Tuesday to present his own defense against charges that his conduct was unethical.

domestic crop because they are grown and shipped in a different season. He suggested a seasonal tariff schedule.

Contrasted with Goodner's statement was the appeal of L. L. O. Chandler, Gould, Fla., representing Florida and Texas tomato growers, who urged a duty of four cents a pound.

"The things you produce in California you want duty on; the things you do not produce you do not want a duty on," Rep. Bacharach, New Jersey republican told Goodner.

Rep. Garner, Texas democrat, also assailed Goodner's position. "Your chamber of commerce," he said, "is here asking for comparatively free tomatoes from Mexico and yet your same chamber is here on various and sundry matters asking duties to cover high rail rates to New York, but objecting to the same treatment being extended to Texas and Florida."

Dr. A. W. Merrill, Los Angeles, representing the West Coast Vegetable association of Nogales, Ariz., opposed any increase in duty on tomatoes.

Salmon Duty
A duty of 10 percent on canned salmon instead of the present rate of 25 percent was asked by Victor H. Elfordahl, president, and Dr. E. D. Clark, secretary of the association of Pacific Fisheries, Seattle. They asked no change on raw salmon.

The request for increase on canned salmon is due to a threat of heavy competition from Japanese financed fisheries in Siberia. The Siberian catch this year is said to be the largest in history and Japanese agents are now in the United States seeking a market.

SMITH, HOOVER PLANNING VISIT

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 28.—(UP)—After 36 hours during which there has been much flutter over whether former Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York would call upon President-elect Herbert Hoover, both Hoover and Smith broke silence on the subject today.

Hoover, pressed for some information as to whether he had any expectation of meeting Smith said: "By all means I should be glad if Governor Smith has the time to call. I should be happy to meet him."

The United Press correspondent telephoned Governor Smith informing him what Mr. Hoover had said. "Where is he?" asked Governor Smith.

He was told Mr. Hoover was in Miami, near Coral Gables, where Smith is staying.

"Well, someone told me he was at Palm Beach," said Smith, "how long is he going to be in Miami?"

He was told that Hoover was leaving tomorrow night on a fishing expedition and would be back the first of the week.

"I'll get in touch later," said Smith.

Judge Edward J. Henning of Los Angeles visited Hoover today. He had come here from Jacksonville, Fla., where he was attending a fraternal convention. Governor Smith, at Coral Gables, had luncheon with A. Mitchell Palmer, former alien property custodian and attorney general in the Wilson administration. He went motoring in the morning, played a round of golf in the afternoon and then went swimming.

El Cerrito Seeks Mail Delivery

A request is to be made in the near future by the residents of El Cerrito to the post office department in Washington, D. C. for free mail delivery. No difficulty is expected on account of the substantial increase in postal receipts during the year 1928.

A move to have the El Cerrito post office created a branch of the Berkeley department was recently made but is being opposed by the majority of citizens who are planning a determined effort to maintain the identity of the community's post office.

Will be a most prosperous year for Richmond, and one of great activity industrially and in the building line.

Harbor development will reach such a stage that deep water will be available for the largest vessels.

What Is Coming

Ford Motor Company will start on its new assembling plant the latter part of the year.

The Mintzer tract of nearly 200 acres will be developed so that industries will be afforded choice locations.

The two new harbor units of the City of Richmond and the Parr Terminal Corporation, costing over $500,000 will be completed next July and be ready to receive cargo.

There is much activity at the new plant of the California Spray Chemical company, and the plant will be operating shortly after January 1st.

All plans for the new factory of the California Vitreous Porcelain company are complete, and work on the buildings to be erected on Kearney street will start in about two months.

There are many other things in the wind, for 1929, details of which will be given you later.
